

2009 GAME NOTES

Denver Outlaws vs. Washington Bayhawks

7:00P.M. MT Face-Off @ INVESCO FIELD

Outlaws vs. Bayhawks Preview

Fresh off their first victory of the season, the Outlaws return home looking to improve on their 1-1 record. Standing in their path will be a stout Bayhawks offense that leads the MLL in a number of offensive categories including: shots (109), shots on goal (76) and face-offs (42-of-67). Nonetheless the Bayhawks sport the same record of 1-1 due in large part for allowing the most goals in the league (30).

Denver's Jesse Schwartzman will put up an impressive wall in goal to combat Washington's firepower. He currently ranks second in the league in goals against average (12.50).

Individual Matchup

Kyle Harrison vs. Chris Garrity:

Harrison could really get things going against Garrity, who currently allows more goals per game than anyone in the league (14.82 GAA). Harrison isn't afraid to rip shots from all over the field and has already attempted 10 this season.

Side note:

Benson Erwin, former Outlaws player traded before the season, will return to Denver for the first time in a Washington jersey. The defensive middle has two assists and three ground balls in two games.

Players to Watch

Brendan Mundorf, Denver- He's led the offensive charge at attack thus far with 8 goals and 1 assist in two games. Mundorf's 5 goals against the Boston Cannons last week helped the team sneak a 15-14 victory on the road.

Kyle Dixon, Washington- This 6'4", 210-pound middle does an outstanding job of slashing to the goal. Five goals and 3 assists have put this former Virginia player atop the team leader board.

Kevin Huntley, Washington- In only his second year in the league, Huntley is finding the back of the net quite easily. He's tallied five goals.

Matt Brown, Denver- After being held scoreless in the season opener against the Chicago Machine, Brown went off for a hat trick in game two. He's also one of the most accurate players in the MLL considering those 3 scores have come on 5 shots on goal.

2008 Season

The Outlaws ended the 2008 season with a second place finish, being defeated in the championship by the Rochester Rattlers (6-16). Two players from the team were listed in the Top-25 of the scoring leaders board; Langtry at the top with a 3rd place ranking followed by Mundorf with a 6th place ranking.
